

Joint Council for Cosmetic Practitioners (JCCP) and Clinical Standards Authority

Generic Presentation – September 2016

Background – Non-surgical Treatments – Regulation in the UK

- History of the regulation of the non – surgical sector in England
  - Keogh Report
  - HEE Report
  - Establishment of the Joint Council for Cosmetic Practitioners (JCCP)
  - Establishment of the new Clinical Standards Authority (CSA)

Why establish the proposed JCCP?

- To provide credible regulation, protection and guidance for the public/patients in a currently unregulated sector.
- To establish a recognised vehicle for accrediting and assessing practitioners and training providers in the non-surgical sector.
- To reduce risk to all parties working in the sector
- To provide a focal point for the many key stakeholders in the sector.
- To agree with the Clinical Standards Authority a set of clinical standards that can be used for registration and the development of a set of recognised educational/training qualifications and programmes.

Core principles of the JCCP/CSA Framework

- Driven by Patient/Public Safety
- A Code of Ethical Practice
- Independence
- Inclusivity
- Fairness
- Sustainability
